October 2006 Newsletter

Dear AFI Members and Friends

Spring forward - Fall back! Don't forget to put your clocks forward one hour on Sunday, 1st October. As this is the day of our AGM and evening lecture we don't want you arriving one hour late!

In New Zealand, daylight time in its present form was introduced in 1974. At commencement, clocks are advanced 1 hour at 2:00 am (NZ Standard Time: NZST) to 3:00 am (NZ Daylight Time: NZDT) corresponding to a longitude of 195E00, or 13 hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time.

Currently, NZ daylight time is observed from the 1st Sunday in October through to the 3rd Sunday the following March. Therefore, this forthcoming period of daylight savings will end on Sunday, 18th March 2007.

We wish you well as spirits lift in the new growth of spring and we look forward to the return of the summer months ahead.

Stan, Deb, Judy, Rachel & Carol
