February 2007 Newsletter

Dear AFI Members and friends,

We hope you have all been enjoying the summer holiday season, but keen to get back into meeting mode. You'll be pleased to see that Hamish starts off the 2007 Sunday night lecture series with a subject dear to one and all...

Stan (President) follows in March, and he is also spearheading the campaign to acquire an overhead projector for the AFI by suggesting a gold coin entry by donation to help us manifest that goal.

This month we spend gearing up to the second Saturn-Neptune opposition on the 28th February, this time trined by Jupiter, so amplification seems certain. Boundary issues are key, and its possible that Jupiter's influence will be a doorway to a higher level of understanding and wisdom.

Best wishes to you all

Rachel (on behalf of the AFI committee)

AFI Sunday Evening Lecture

Sunday 11th February

7.30 pm-9.00 pm

Hamish Saunders presents:

Relationships

The 7th and 5th houses, Venus and Mars, and the Sun and Moon all have one thing in common - they are the primary signifiers of personal relationships. If there is one thing all astrologers agree on, it's their clients' preoccupation with their relationships. We shall look at a variety of astrological tools that enable us to unlock the secrets of romantic love.

Sunday 4th March

Stan Sutherland presents:

Location, Location, Location

A look at three suggested birth times for Oprah Winfrey's unknown birth time and through the use of the Astro*Carto*Graphy model as a birth time rectification tool, arrive at the most accurate time.
