AFI Sunday Evening Lectures

Sunday 4th May Franchelle Ofsoske-Wyber

Astrology and Your Personal Flowers of Power

In all indigenous societies the day of an individual's birth was marked by the appearance of auspicious guiding spirits from nature. These guiding spirits were allies coming forward specifically to support the soul on its journey and to share their gifts, lessons or personal medicine. Bring along your own astrological chart and discover your allies from nature, the personal flowers of power that relate to your and your life's journey.

Sunday 8th June Carmel Treacy

Relationship Synastry

Astrology provides us with the tools for evaluating and analysing the Dynamics of Relationships. There are many ways we can compare natal charts within astrology for compatibility and to gain a deeper insight into the complex nature of our relationships whether they be personal or professional.

We will cover the basic principals of Relationship Synastry and utilising Janus 3 examine some charts of interest.

Workshop Sunday 10th August April Elliott Kent

The Astrology of Weddings

April is a visiting American astrologer specializing in personal eclipse cycles and electional astrology. She has recently had her book 'Star Guide to Weddings' published. Her website is www.bigskyastrology.com for those who would like to familiarize themselves beforehand.

Sunday Workshops With Colleen Sunday 17th May (re-scheduled)

The Vertex - What's the Point?

With fresh insight from the recent Australian conference, this workshop will investigate the Vertex, at different levels. In natal and dynamic charts - what does it mean to have the Vertex in aspect to a point or planet? Is the Vertex really the point of "fated encounters?" What does it say about the year ahead when the Vertex is highlighted in a Solar Return chart?

Venue: 119 Queen Street, Northcote Point

Time: 10 am - 4 pm - $70

Morning Tea provided

Bookings essential, extensive handouts and printouts of your chart provided so please give your birth data when booking.
