AFI Sunday Evening Lectures

Sunday 2nd August
Alison Maciver and Stan Sutherland
There's a place for us

In the words of the song from West Side Story "There's a place for us—a time and place for us..." Many people who've met with good fortune have said they were in the right place at the right time and Astro*carto*graphy can help us find the right place. However, it is also useful if we find ourselves in a 'stuck place', showing us what we need to learn before we can move on.

Sunday 6th September
Classical Jyotish—Michal Dziwulski

Following on from an introduction to Jyotish, Vedic Astrology, a year ago, we are fortunate to have Michal open the Vedic doors to us. An introduction to some classical references will be shared and demonstration of the principles of chart interpretation will be presented. Knowing the basics of astrology it will be easy to follow and well worthwhile.

Sunday 4th October (AGM)
Hamish Saunders
Why can't we all just get along?

Relating with others is central to human life and the establishing and maintaining of significant relationships is an ongoing concern in most people's lives. For centuries, astrologers have been called upon to determine the compatibility of marriage partners and the potential longevity of their union. We shall look at some of the techniques used by Western and Indian Vedic astrologers to find out why some relationships work extremely well and others are doomed to fail.

Illness, Accidents and other Critical Cross Roads Sunday 9th August 2009

This is not a workshop on medical astrology but rather an investigation into the events that either changed our life or our attitude to it – and hopefully along the way we will establish pointers that are medical by implication.

The Cosmic Dance

September 20, 2009 10:30am to 5pm

Venue: The Community Centre, Hinemoa St, Highbury

This is an excellent workshop for a beginner or for someone wanting to refresh their knowledge of the astrological dynamics of relationships. Astrology hones in on the nature of each star sign, by defining which of the four elements are active and which of the three modalities are operating. This workshop will walk you through the three by four of the planets in your own chart. When your dominant element and modality emerge, this may contradict your Sunsign as you know it and explain many mysteries about your own behaviour. In the second half of the workshop, armed with these insights, we will explore your relationship dynamics as the cosmic dance.

Fee: $90 Please provide all birth details. Afternoon tea provided. Contact Christine on (+ 61) 02 9938 4382 Email christine@astrologyspot.com.au
