The Cosmic Coupling of Jupiter and Uranus

About every 14 years Jupiter and Uranus connect and from June 2010 to January 2011, their coupling has special import. It includes the stages of their mutual ingress into Aries. This brand new start for Uranus has not occurred for 84 years. We will explore how this is likely to impact on the larger cardinal challenge. What does this signify if you have a personal Jupiter/Uranus link in your chart eg. if born 1955, late 1968/69 or 1983 or when they opposed each other?

Local Classes and Workshops

The Missing Dimension – Lacks in the Natal Chart

Sunday 14th March

The symmetry of the Zodiac creates perfect balance and harmony by quality, element and aspect, but we are rarely offered this absolute perfection and therefore learn to create our own balance with the building blocks within our personal make-up.

But what of those individuals who are "lacking" a fundamental building block, either by quality, element, aspect or even hemisphere emphasis? How does this lack impinge on their life and how do they compensate? Do they indeed feel the need to compensate? From their perspective, "within their own skin," are they even aware of the "lack"? - This workshop looks at what is often a case of something being conspicuous by its absence and how the individual copes when a fundamental building block of natal astrology is missing.

Workshop works with "real" charts so submit your personal examples when you register and registration is essential - For more information contact Colleen lookernz@xtra.co.nz - Phone 09 4182349 - Mobile 021 0444 911

Mysteries of Timing

Explore the way the moving planets unlock our natal secrets

Christine is offering eight linked Thursday evening classes, which explore one of the great astrological mysteries: timing. We will work with two strands in every class – your understanding of your own birth chart and linking this to the patterns that unfold through time via the transiting planets. Christine brings passion, knowledge and extensive teaching experience to her classes.

Series One: Foundations

March 18 The lunar keys - We start with the fastest moving body and transit trigger. See how your own Moon sign, its phase and aspects play a part. How do birth patterns 'perfect' through time?

March 25 The leaders - Explore your 'oriental planet' that rose immediately before the Sun and how this impacts your sensitivity to the transiting planets.

April 8 Getting personal - Identify a major transit for yourself right now and learn how to understand the different 'aspect' energies: are "squares and oppositions what life demands, while trines and sextiles are what life offers"?

April 15 Strengths unfold - We explore the movement of a transit through the 'houses' of a birth chart and how these areas of life provide the stage for strengths to unfold, lessons to be learnt.

Series Two: Planet Motifs

April 22 Saturn transits: engaging with time's reality - This often maligned planet transit is vitally important, supporting our goals with viable, efficient systems, good timing and sensitivity to protocols. Start your own Saturn timeline.

May 6 Jupiter's social and intellectual spurs to growth - Along with Mercury and Venus, Jupiter describes our Social Self. Jupiter's influence can effectively trigger slower transits as well as opening a treasure trove. You will examine the Jupiter/Saturn opposition of May and August in your own chart.

May 13 Making the unknown known – Neptune and Pluto transits - With Neptune's other-worldly invitation and Pluto's cauldron of deep truths that cooks us good, the unknown dimensions of self collide with consciousness during these powerful transits.

May 27 Opening the door on change – Uranus transits - Since Uranus enters Aries the next day, this was an obvious closing theme! Explore the way Uranus transits will accelerate the creative process in this special new Uranus era.

Your birth chart and transit charts will be supplied during the classes.

Course Fees: Series One $160.00, Series Two $160, Both Series: $300

Fee includes charts and teaching material. To secure a space: $30 deposit.
